Cousino High School 2015 yearbook inducted into Gallery of Excellence for second consecutive year

Warren, MI – Warren Consolidated Schools is pleased to announce the 2015 Cousino High School yearbook was recently inducted into the Walsworth Yearbook Gallery of Excellence for the second consecutive year.

Yearbooks in the Gallery demonstrate comprehensive coverage, innovative design, and superior copy and photography. Walsworth sales representatives loan Gallery yearbooks to local schools as inspiration. Gallery books are displayed at regional, state and national conventions and workshops, and are used as examples in Walsworth’s educational materials.

“The Gallery of Excellence is a showcase of the best yearbooks published by Walsworth,” said Don Walsworth, President of Walsworth Yearbooks. “The Cousino yearbook staff can be proud of this accomplishment, as only a small percentage of our company’s yearbooks are selected for the Gallery each year.”

There are 50 students from the Advanced Yearbook and Introduction to Yearbook classes who produced the 2015 yearbook.

“I am extremely proud of the yearbook students for achieving this accomplishment,” Cousino Principal Stephen Bigelow said. “Under the direction of Yearbook Advisor Lise Blades, the students work hard all year long to produce a product that captures all of the wonderful things going on at Cousino High School.”
