Warren Consolidated Schools
Board of Education

Invite our students and parents annually to participate in the district-wide Poster Contest:

Rules for entries:

1. The poster must be on a 12 x 18 sheet of white construction paper-provided by the school. Crayons, paint, pastels, cut-outs or any other artistic mean may be used.
2. Parents will assist students with their idea, with the work completed by the student.
3. Entries will be submitted to the student's teacher by no later than:
Wednesday, December 13th
4. The entry form below should be attached to the back of the poster.

Poster Theme for 2023

“Sharing Goodness: I can be a good person by...” Students will create a poster about why being a good person in this world is important at home and at school. What can you do to be a good person? How can you be an example to others?

- Each school will select grade-level winners. The grade-level winning students and their families will be invited and honored at the WCS School Board meeting on March 6, 2024
- A panel of judges will select the finalist from each grade level, district wide.
- Grade Levels include TK-12, ECSE, and World of Fours.
- In total, 16 district-wide winners will be chosen to receive a $50 gift card from the Warren Education Association.
