Dear WCS Community,

After lunch today at Warren Mott High School, several students from another high school, outside of WCS, arrived and were let in a side entrance by a student who thought they were Warren Mott students. The students were detained by administration and when questioned, one student was less than cooperative, resulting in a police presence at dismissal.

Although there was no incident, this is an excellent opportunity to remind students about opening doors for students who otherwise should use the main entrances to the school. I applaud the response of Principal David Meengs, his administrative team and staff, and School Resource Officer Darryl Bagiano.

All is well at the school, and I appreciate your continued support.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Livernois, Ph.D.
